Island

Leo Thorsteinn Gunnarsson, player: “It feels amazing to win the game, this victory is very important to us and for the team spirit”

Heimir Rikardsson, head coach: “It was a much better game than yesterday. This victory is very important, our defense was good, goalkeeper also, we showed everyone how we can play”

Italy

Boris Popović, head coach: “The game was good but yesterday we had several injuries from the top seven players and we’re lacking players to rotate. Team was tired and missed few shots. Still this is our first time on Euro, we will take this championship as a learning opportunity”.

Nicola Fadanelli, player: “I am very honored to be player of the match, but I am sad about the result. We have to keep thinking ahead”

Arnor Atlason, Denmark's head coach, had this to say: "I am very happy, we were good in defense as well as the attack. Every player got the chance to play and they delivered. We had an amazing start of the tournament and now we're going to use the rest day to prepare for a very big game against Germany."

Denmark's Player of the match title went to Thomas Sommer Arnoldsen: "I am happy to be named the player of the match but we won because the whole team played well. We scored 38 goals which means the attack was great as well as the defense."

Vladislav Kosmodemianskii, Russia's head coach, told us this: "We played well for the first 15 minutes but then we got tired and were unable to keep that rhythm for the rest of the game."

Player of the match title for Russia was awarded to visibly disappointed Artem Zaitsev: "I can't be happy at this moment because my team lost. We still have one game left and we need to win it."

Serbian head coach, Djordje Teodorović was satisfied that his team made a comeback after a loss from Italy:

“This was about to happen sooner or later. We changed our approach to the game and it showed. I am sorry we didn’t play as good yesterday but today we had a meeting, we discussed everything and I am extremely proud that we won against strong Slovenia, candidate for the medal!”

Vukasin Antonijević, best player from the Serbian team was proud of his team

“This feels amazing, we showed that our play against Italy was just a mistake. We left our heart on the field and it showed”

Saša Prapotnik commented:

“Serbia deserved this win. We missed a lot of games and had weak defense. We will try to get back up in the next game and go to the next round”

Andraž Makuz added:

“I am thankful to be named player of the match, but it would feel much better if we had won this game. I would much rather be a player at the winning team than the best player from the losing team but we will continue strong in the next games”.

Martin Heuberger, Germany's head coach stated: "We are satisfied with qualifying to the main round. In the first half our defense was great and Norway couldn't find the way to score. In the second we got a bit tired and our offense didn't look as good. At the end this is a good result for us."

The Player of the match award went to the goalkeeper David Späth "I'm very proud of being named the player of the match. Our defense was good and that helped me a lot. Now we need to focus on Denmark."

Norway's head coach Johnny Jensen had this to say: "Germany scored more goals and also had a great goalkeeper who stopped our shots. We have a tough game waiting for us against Russia. Both teams must win but I can see an improvement in our game from the first match which gives me confidence for that match."

Matias Landsrød Haug, who was named Player of the match for Norway, said: "It feels good to be named player of the match but it's also bittersweet because we lost the match. We will try our best against Russia and hopefully win the game."

Sweden Head Coach Jesper Ostlund commented on the game:

“Another win, that’s the most important even though we didn’t play that well today. We missed a lot of shots and penalties, we should have been better at the second half, but the victory is most important. We will analyze Spain game and prepare for our next match”

Best player from the winning team, Mattias Wighall stated:

“This was a tough game, we thought we should win by a little more but we fought until the end. We are ready and confident for the next game against Spain”

After the second loss on the competition, Israel Head Coach stated:

“I’m very proud of my players, in the second half we played better than in the first half but they showed then know how to play handball and how to fight. Our target is to improve every game so hopefully we will continue our improvement and win in the future”

Being the best player of the match, Orel-Yakov Nahmani shortly said:

Here's what the head coach of the winning team Carlos Martingo had to say: "I'm happy with the win but also a bit disappointed by the goal difference because now we have to depend on the results of other matches. I have to congratulate my players because we played really well against an amazing team like France. Now we have to focus on winning the Sunday game with the biggest goal difference we can."

Added Miguel Oliveira, Portugal's Player of the match: "The key of today's win is our good defense and against teams like France we had to leave everything on the pitch and we did that. I wish we won with a bigger goal difference."

Pascal Bourgeois, France's head coach was understandably disappointed: "Even though I'm disappointed with this loss I can say this was a great game. There are definitively aspects we need to improve. We'll do our best to win against Croatia on Sunday."

The Player of the match award for France was awarded to Mattéo Fadhuile-Crepy: "When you lose the match it's difficult to be happy. But it's an honor."

After such tight game, winning Head Coach Javier Fernandez explained:

“This was an amazing game on both sides, we have great players that always give their best. We kept calm and focused on improving our game. I think that this game could have gone both ways, but we are lucky to win and continue strong in the tournament.”

While Player of the match from team Spain, Bruno Reguart added:

“I’m more happy with the victory of the team than with me being the Player of the match. We will continue to fight in every game from the beginning until the last whistle”

Losing such close game was a shock to Hungary while their Head Coach, Krisztian Krpati said:

“We played with many mistakes but we really tried hard through the whole game. We missed several opportunities to turn the game around and win the game. We will do our best to recover during the Rest day and try to win against Israel in the next match”.

Being the Player of the Match is always an honor but losing the game is never accepted easily:

“I’m disappointed and sad that we didn’t win this game so now I’m focused on at least me being the player of the game”, said Grego Fezekas.

Here is what the coach of the winning team Krešo Ivanković had to say: “This win opens the door of semi finals for us because it’s always easier when you carry the two points into the next round. This was a game that we had to win and it was important not to underestimated the opponent because nowadays everyone knows how to play and surprises are possible. Our biggest advantage is the team spirit and if I had to find something to improve it would be the aggression in the defense.”

The player of the match for Croatia Marin Božičević credits the team for this win: “First of all I want to thank the team who helped me get this title with their amazing performance and also a big thank you to the crowd for their support. There were times when we lost concentration and the game was more stressful than we planned but luckily we were able to win at the end. All the hard work during the preparation payed off.”

Jörg Merten said this about his team’s loss: “Congratulations to Croatia for the great performance. We thought we had more chances but at the end they were too strong for us. We need to keep trying and hopefully secure a place in the top 10 teams on this tournament.”

The title for the Player of the match for Austria was awarded to Jakob Nigg:”I am happy but also disappointed. If I could trade this award for the team’s win I would. We’re going to keep trying.”
