Vitaly Ivanov, Russian head coach: “I’m pleased with the organization of this whole tournament but we didn’t play well.”

Russian goalkeeper Denis Mikhulina was the Player of the match: “I’m happy with the title but this is not what I came here for.”

Austrian coach Jörg Merten was happy with the experience his players got: “Someone has to be last and unfortunately it was us this time. I’m not disappointed, I do feel bad we didn’t do better for our country, but overall, it was a chance for our players to see how handball can be played and how much more we have to work to get to that high level.”

“It was a great experience for me and I’m happy we got to be here even though it is sad to be the last.”

Serbian head coach Djordje Teodorovic was proud of his team: “This truly our mentality, to give our best when it's most needed. I had no doubt that my team is going to win this game. They were fighting like lions in the defense for 60 minutes as if they were playing for gold medal. There is a regret that we didn't manage to go to the Main round and be among the top 8. We weren't constant at this tournament but this is expected from young players.”

Serbian goalkeeper Luka Krivokapic was the Player of the match: “We didn't expect to fight for the stay in the A division at the end of the tournament, our goal was to go to the Main round but we failed. I'm glad I could end this tournament with good performance but the most important thing was that we won.”

Norway's head coach Johnny Jensen: "Today I was very happy with how we played, we did everything we planned to do and scored goals when we had the chances. Our goal coming here was to end among top 8 but we didn't do enough to achieve that. Overall, this is a great experience and we're happy to end it with a win."

Aleksander Høiness, Norway's best player: "Throughout the whole tournament, the whole team as well as me, had a lot of ups and downs. Some games we played really good and some really bad but overall, it was a great experience."

Italy's head coach Boris Popovic stated that Italy achieved its goal: "We're happy because we managed to remain in the A division which was our goal. In the last two games, we were not mentally strong enough which resulted in these two losses."

"Our goal at the start of this tournament was to remain in the A division because this is our first participation in the EHF Euro of the A division, so we are happy to achieve that. We're a bit sad because we lost the last two matches but the next year we get to come back and that's important." – Gabriele Sontachi, Italy's best player.

Hungarian lead coach Krisztian Karpati: “Coming into this tournament, the goal was to play among the best teams. We were unable to reach the top 8 because of a small differences. Overall, I’m very proud of my team because out of seven matches, we won five. We are going to try achieve a better result next year.”

Hungarian Player of the match was Gergö Fazekas: “In the beginning of this championship, we were unfortunate in losing the two most important games that prevented us from going to the Main round. But I’m happy that we could win the last five games of the tournament with a significant score difference.

Eric Quintin, French head coach, had this to say: “This was maybe the first time of my life that my team lost with such a significant goal difference. I’m not too disappointed because this is the end of the adventure with my players and I just want to remember the good things. Everyone was so welcoming here, the organization was great and overall, it was a great experience for all of us.”

France’s best player was Mattéo Fadhuile-Crepy: “First of all, I’m disappointed because we are ending the tournament with a loss. We have to work hard to come better next year.”
