Jesper Ostlund, Sweden Head Coach reflected on the competition and the future of the team:

“We had a lot players injured today and it was tough to play the seventh game in ten days so the guys are doing awesome regarding all. I think there will be many players that will go professional and I am excited to follow them and watch them develop”

Felix Moller, second time awarded Player of the Match title said:

“This felt great, both finishing this with a victory and being the player of the match for the second time. Unfortunately we lost against Denmark, but it felt good winning this one”

Iceland Head Coach, Heimir Rikardsson commented on the match and his team:

“Both our defense and attack were not really good today. We didn’t start the game on time, and we couldn’t catch up. This will be a really strong team in the future, they are missing few players but they will be really good team”

While Gunnar Oskarsson, who also won Player of the Match for team Iceland for the second time added:

“Getting this tittle is fine, but we lost the important game so it doesn’t really matter a lot. I thought we will catch up and win this game but they were really good, I don’t know what happened”

Simon Dahl Jorgensen, Head Coach from Denmark commented:

“I am very proud of my team, like in the last game. It is not easy to play such matches when you really wanted to play the semi finals and finals, but we played well and I am really proud Now we can go home with a nice feeling, 5th place is amazing, but the most important is that the guys could learn so much at their first competition. Hopefully next time we could climb up some places. I really hope for these guys to became the A national team players, that is the most important to us. If some of these guys go to the main national team, this will be our biggest success.”

And third time winner of Player of the Match, Sommer Thomas Arnoldsen added:

“This is awesome, being the player of the match for the third time. We also played a really good matches. We are a little sad that we didn't make it to the semi finals, but this is a nice way of ending the tournament.”

Carlos Martingo, Portugal Head Coach explained:

“In the first few minutes we played well but then we missed few sure shots, I think we did fantastic joy at the tournament. It is not a tragedy to lose the way we lost today.

Andre Sousa, second time Player of the Match said:

“I feel like I played well at this competition, I am proud of my team and the way we played. I hope we could do better in the future”

Javier Fernandez, Spanish Head Coach:

“I feel really good after this game, excited, much less nervous. Players played an amazing match, my thoughts are with everyone that supported us, our families, players that couldn't be here, with everyone who believed in our team. I am very proud of the team”

Arnau Fernandez explained how it felt being the Player of the Match and win the medal:

“The best description of what I feel like is: “Ufff!!” haha, I am extremely proud of my team mates, we fought, gave our all, it feels amazing to leave this competition with a medal!”

Slovenian Head Coach, Saša Prapotnik explained:

“Spain was a better team today, we are satisfied with what we did. I hope that at the next championship we will be in the top four again but placed a bit higher. These guys are definitely the future of Slovenian handball and I look forward to seeing them play in the future”

And Andraž Makuz, Player of the Match talked about his team:

“It's hard to talk about the game right now, so fast after it happened. We gave 120% in this game but we just didn't have luck. We had few sure shots that we missed and it costed us.”

Klaus-Dieter Petersen, Head Coach from team Germany commented:

“This was a fantastic game, we played very good defense, we made a good use of our players and everyone contributed to this victory! This was amazing!”

Golden Player of the Match, Justus Fischer also said:

“I’m honestly speechless. Without my team I would have never become this, and would have never won the gold. I am very thankful for our fans and everyone supporting us! This is giving me the motivation to play better in the future”

Being so close to gold but ending up in the second place is never easy. Croatian Head Coach said:

“We did our best today but we couldn’t make it. Germany was better at handball today in every way. We can be proud of our guys today, we left behind some major handball forces, we can’t be anything but proud. This is a really big result for Croatian handball and I only hope it will be even better in the future.

While Player of the Match from team Croatia, Matej Mandić added:

“Of course it would have been better to win the gold but this was a really good experience and I would like to congratulate everyone and thank everyone who supported us”
